HOTLINE VOLUNTEER DESCRIPTION

About the WA Immigrant Solidarity Network

The Washington Immigrant Solidarity Network is a coalition of immigrant and refugee rights organizations, ally groups and individuals in Washington who are demanding justice, value and inclusion of immigrants and refugees in the Evergreen State and beyond.

About the Reporting Hotline

The new Washington reporting hotline is a safe, confidential service offered to people in Washington to document, corroborate, and respond to immigration enforcement activities. The Reporting Hotline was created and is managed by the Washington Immigrant Solidarity Network, and run by a team of multilingual volunteers trained to triage and assist in responding to reported incidents.

About the Hotline Volunteer Role:

Hotline Advocates play a crucial role in responding to enforcement activities. Operating from 6am to 9pm PST daily, Hotline Volunteers answer calls on a self-selected shift, from any confidential, quiet location with Internet connection.

Commitment

A Hotline Volunteer commits to the following:

- Review and agree to the Confidentiality Agreement & Volunteer Commitment;
- Communicate with Spanish proficiency;
- Participate in a 2 hour training orientation for the reporting hotline;
- Dedicate 3 hours every week to be available to answer and document calls, maintaining reliable access to the internet during the shift;
- Commit to answering hotline calls for a minimum of 6 months;
- Communicate with hotline callers to accurately document emotional and potentially confusing situations, and escalate incidents, following established procedures;
- Be flexible with evolving procedures, and maintain open communication with Washington Immigrant Solidarity Network staff and volunteers;
- Share in the desire to protect Washington communities from injustice;
- Where possible, participate in lessons learned meetings with the volunteer group;
