

MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD

AN MLK DAY YOUTH ADVOCACY WORKSHOP

Are you concerned about the dramatic increase in hatred and discrimination in the US?

Are you interested in learning more about Islamophobia and Antisemitism?

Do you want to use the power of your voice to say that bigotry and discrimination have no place in our communities?

Do you want to meet other youth from all over the Puget Sound region who are inspired to work for change in their communities and nation?

If so, join us for a Youth Advocacy Workshop!

When: Sunday, January 14, 2018
2pm-6pm

Who: All youth, 6th-12th grade

Where: Seattle University Student Center Room 160

Join us for a workshop that focuses on tools for using your voices against discrimination and bullying. Learn what you can do to speak out publicly against Islamophobia, Antisemitism, and hatred in your community.

Pick your breakout session when you register:
Film, Spoken Word, News Media,
Bystander Intervention,
& Talking About The Issues You Care About

Questions?

Jordan Goldwarg: jordan@k4p.org

Hannah Hochkeppel: hannah@k4p.org

Register today!

tinyurl.com/mlkdayworkshop2018

Organized by: Kids4Peace and our program partners

Co-Sponsored by a broad coalition of groups and organizations.

Search for the Facebook event to see the complete list: "Make Your Voice Heard 2018: An MLK Day Youth Advocacy Workshop"

Made possible thanks to generous support from the Seattle Foundation and the Abe Keller Peace Education Fund.