In the past year FAN:

Grew our network to 109 faith communities pledging to take action with FAN for the common good.

Convened Interfaith Leaders quarterly and in meetings with the Governor, and issued statements against hate crimes and Islamophobia, against racially-motivated violence after Charleston, SC, and calling for just budget and policies.

The Heart of our Organizing Work:

Organized Advocacy Days in Olympia, Spokane and Yakima, raising the voices of over more than 400 advocates.

Facilitated 40 meetings with state legislators and 16 with Congress members, engaging 250 FAN advocates.

Trained District Coordinators, NAFC liaisons, and FAN committee members to provide leadership in their communities.

Sponsored two special Tax Forums, one in Western WA, one in Eastern WA.

WON legislative victories: FAN human trafficking bill to include labor in definition; with coalition partners, Certificates of Restoration of Opportunities Act; Homeless Students Stability Act; Toxic Free Kids & Families Act; and Task Force on the Use of Deadly Force.

Statewide

We reached further this year:

Visited, Taught, Preached at more than 57 faith community forums and conferences, reaching more than 4,000 people.

Convened 17 Cluster Gatherings across the state in summer/autumn.

Organized four Spring Summits for 200 advocates to strategize in Seattle, Spokane, Vancouver and Yakima.
