Faith Action Network is an interfaith, statewide partnership striving for a just, compassionate and sustainable world through community building, education, advocacy and courageous public action.
Advocating with Faith Action Network, you tangibly protect what you love:

- Engage with a statewide network of 155+ faith communities and thousands of individuals.
- Increase the impact of your voice at Interfaith Advocacy Days in Olympia, Spokane, Yakima.
- Organize local solutions to issues during 21 cluster meetings and four regional summits.
- Have a lobbying team of two seasoned advocates on the ground in Olympia during session.
- Respond to action alerts and attend interim meetings with legislators.
- Participate in FAN legislative wins like Court Houses Open to All, TANF reform and supports for families, criminal justice reforms, Sustainable Farms & Fields to reduce carbon. See full list of this session successes at: fanwa.org/advocacy/legislative-agenda.
- Raise your moral voice and values at candidate forums during election seasons.
- Work in coalition with social justice organizations and unions on issues impacting our communities like poverty, hunger, economic disparity, access to healthcare, homelessness and affordable housing, environmental justice, and threats to civil and human rights.
- Advocate at the federal level with national coalitions on issues affecting our state.
- Help ensure EVERYONE is counted in Census 2020 for representation and resources.
- Build solidarity and take action together as an interfaith community!
