FAITH COMMUNITIES UNITED FOR VOTING RIGHTS

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

“[We join] with our member denominations to affirm that each vote is precious, just as each person is a precious child of God. Voting is the most powerful nonviolent tool we have to create a more perfect union.”

REFORM JUDAISM

“In 2024, we must come together once again to break down the barriers set up by voter suppression laws... By following the lead of those most impacted, we will work together to create a Movement, and a country, committed to an equitable democracy that reflects our nation's vibrant diversity.”

YOUR VOTE HAS POWER

AFRICAN METHODIST EPISCOPAL

“If you have the right to vote, use it. Young and old, rich and poor, you and I, by bus, car or on foot must get to the poll to cast our vote. Let's just do it!”

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST

“The 2024 elections are not just about what's at stake, but what is possible—a coordinated national movement of communities working together to fight for justice, accountability, and equity. An opportunity to grow and deepen relationships that will sustain us in the months and years to come.”

SIKH AMERICAN LEGAL DEFENSE & EDUCATION FUND

“In 1923, the Supreme Court ruled in a landmark case ... that Sikh Americans could not become citizens, thus we could not vote, and were denied a voice in our country. To have the right to vote today and to not use it means that Sikh American civil rights heroes and activists in the decades since 1923 have done their work in vain. Today, we have the right to vote, make our voices heard, and determine the future of our nation.”

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

“... political processes are simply the way communities organize their common life. For people of faith, public policy is never merely politics. It is a way of living out the commandment to love our neighbor as ourselves.”

INTERFAITH AMERICA

“Religious institutions and everyday people of faith have the values, power, and skillsets to play a pivotal role in this effort to protect every valid vote — the foundation on which all other freedoms rest.”

COUNCIL ON AMERICAN-ISLAMIC RELATIONS

“CAIR ... encourages Muslims to participate in national and state elections, conduct voter registrations, training programs, issue briefings, candidate forums, volunteer in campaigns, and get-out-the-vote drives.”

BUDDHIST TEACHERS

“As Buddhist teachers and leaders, we recognize that every vote and voice needs to be heard to help guide the next years of our society wisely.”

FAITH-BASED GUIDES TO ELECTION ENGAGEMENT

Faith communities bring core values of compassion, justice, equity, and inclusion to our wider communities. Many have created guides to nonpartisan election involvement that highlight:

- Amplifying voice and vote through voter registration and Get Out the Vote programs
- Sharing trustworthy information and identifying disinformation
- Enhancing civil discourse across polarization
- Celebrating the power and opportunity in the electoral process and election workers
- Protecting voter rights
